STATEMENT:

Real Estate is a personal service business. It's most important that you choose an agent with the backup of a strong, reliable real estate company. That agent should have knowledge and skills in the areas of marketing, finance, contracts and negotiating.

PERSONAL:

Janet and her husband Jim are skating partners and have four great children. Having lived in Indianapolis since 1960, Janet has been involved with the construction and renovation of five homes for her family. She fully understands how exciting, yet disruptive and emotionally unsettling the changing of a residence can be. She and her team do everything they can to make your transition as smooth and easy as possible.

So, if you plan to buy or sell, Talk to Janet. She Listens!

Pair Up With The Best For All Your Real Estate Needs.

Janet is always willing to go that extra step for her clients!

One client, whose home she sold, lost his job prior to closing on his new home. Janet helped him find a job and close on the new residence.

People appreciate the personal touch she brings to buying a home. One client wrote, "You have been very supportive and helpful during this move."

Janet is well respected among her peers in the real estate business who often seek her advice and expertise. Some comments from other realtors follow:

"I just wanted to thank you for your professionalism in real estate and the handling of all matters."

"Thank you for your commitment to helping others. I have been blessed."

"You are a great mentor for all!"
